Achievers International Campus

Global Conference for Multidisciplinary Research 2026 (GCMR)

1. Information We Collect

1.1 Personal Information

We may collect personal information from participants, speakers, presenters, reviewers, and other individuals involved in the conference. This may include:

- Name
- Contact details, including email address, telephone number, and mailing address
- Affiliation and professional title
- Payment information required for registration and related transactions
- Biographical information provided by speakers and presenters

2. How We Use Collected Information

2.1 Conference Administration

Personal information may be used to:

- Process and manage conference registrations.
- Manage participant accounts and conference-related records.
- Communicate important announcements, updates, schedules, and other conference information.
- Prepare and publish conference materials, including proceedings and participant directories where applicable.

2.2 Improvement of Services

Information collected through the website and participant interactions may be used to:

- Analyse participant feedback and improve the overall conference experience.
- Conduct surveys and gather feedback before, during, or after the conference.
- Evaluate and enhance conference services, processes, and activities.

3. Sharing of Information

3.1 With Third Parties

We may share relevant information with trusted third-party service providers where necessary to support conference operations, including:

- Secure processing of registration and payment transactions.
- Hosting and management of conference-related digital platforms and tools.
- Publication of conference proceedings and, where applicable, promotional materials.

Information will only be shared where reasonably necessary for the relevant purpose and, where appropriate, subject to applicable confidentiality and security requirements.

3.2 Legal Obligations

We may disclose personal information where required to do so by applicable law, regulation, legal proceedings, or valid requests from authorized public authorities.

4. Data Security

We implement reasonable technical and organizational measures designed to protect personal information against unauthorized access, disclosure, loss, alteration, misuse, or destruction.

Payment information is processed through secure and encrypted platforms that follow applicable industry security standards. While reasonable safeguards are implemented, no method of electronic storage or transmission can be guaranteed to be completely secure.

5. Retention of Data

Personal information will be retained only for as long as reasonably necessary to fulfill the purposes described in this Privacy Policy or to meet applicable legal, regulatory, contractual, or administrative requirements.

Non-personal or anonymized information may be retained for analytical, reporting, and service-improvement purposes.

6. Your Rights

Participants may have the following rights regarding their personal information, subject to applicable legal and contractual requirements:

- Access: Request access to or a copy of the personal information we hold about you.
- Correction: Request correction of inaccurate or incomplete personal information.
- Deletion: Request deletion of your personal information, where legally and contractually permissible.
- Restriction: Request restriction of the processing of your personal information in applicable circumstances.
- Objection: Object to certain types of processing, including the use of personal information for marketing purposes where applicable.

To exercise any of these rights or to raise a concern regarding the handling of your personal information, please contact us using the contact details provided below.

7. Updates to This Policy

This Privacy Policy may be reviewed and updated periodically to reflect changes in applicable legal requirements, conference activities, services, or data-handling practices.

Where significant changes are made, participants may be notified through email, the conference website, or other appropriate communication channels.
